The Nailers' Scale Signed.

The Amalgamated Association's scale for nailing was signed by the La Belle iron and nail company Saturday, and the nailers will go to work this morning. This was the last part of the scale not signed by this company.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook Saturday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:

Deed made July 7, 1892, by the Stone Church Cemetery Association, for lot No. 22 in section L. Consideration, $30 48.

Money for Maier's Cause.

At a meeting held yesterday the Wheeling Turners voted $25 toward paying the traveling expenses of the attorneys of William Maier, the condemned wife murderer. The work that Messrs. Atkinson and Coniff have done has been gratuitous, but it is not to be expected that they will pay out more of their own funds than they have already expended.

A supersedeas in the Maier case was received from the supreme court of appeals Saturday. This definitely assures that he will not be hung on August 5.

The New Schedule in Effect.

Wheeling and Martin's Ferry people and people living all along the Wheeling and Lake Erie Railroad are much pleased with the new time card. The first through train to Toledo on the new schedule ran out last night and the second early this morning. Lovers of hunting and fishing can go out on the early train and return on the late train, giving them a full day. This can also be said of the Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling road. There is excellent hunting and fishing along both of these railroads.

Struck by Lightning.

During the heavy storm last night a bright blaze was visible in the western sky. It was evident that a house or barn had been struck by lightning and burned down. It was located just west of the hill back of West Wheeling, but whose property it was or what the damage amounted to could not be ascertained.

It was reported last night that Charles Schrader's house at Elm Grove was also struck by lightning and badly damaged. It was struck some time ago and slightly damaged.

A number of telephones in the south end of the city and in Benwood were burned out by the lightning.

NEWS OF THE STAGE.

Some of the Stars and the Attractions for Next Season.

Karl McDonald and Barnabee, proprietors of the Bostonians, have decided to organize a company to play the opera of "Robin Hood" next season in cities which the Bostonians cannot visit. The Bostonians return to New York next fall for an extended run, and, according to their contract, they will remain there most of the season. "Robin Hood" has become so popular throughout the country that the idea of putting out a new company is a good one. Everything about the organization will be first-class, some of the leading artists with the Bostonians will go out with it, and new scenery is being painted for the production. The company will carry its own orchestra and will have about fifty people upon the stage.

John L. Sullivan will begin his theatrical tour of the country shortly after his fight with Corbett, playing the part of Capt. Harcourt in his new play, "The Man from Boston." Sullivan possesses considerable dramatic ability and will be a great drawing card. He will visit Wheeling in January.

Jessie Bartlett-Davis, the charming exponent of light opera, will have her own opera company during the season of 1893-4. This will be good news to music lovers, because it is quite certain that Mrs. Bartlett-Davis will not have a proprietary interest in any organization that has not the stamp of first-rate merit.

Manager Rheinstrom is to be congratulated upon a notable engagement, that of Miss Jane Coombs, one of the world's greatest actresses, who will appear here October 1, in her marvelous creations of Lady Dedlock and Hortense in Charles Dickens' masterpiece, "Bleak House."

Hearing that Lottie Collins, of Tantara-boom-de-a-y fame, had died, Manager Charles Frohman cabled to Europe for confirmation or denial of the report. The answer he received was from the famous dancer herself, and simply read: "Tantara-boom-de-a-y."

Edward E. Rice, who wrote "Evangeline," one of the most successful musical burlesques ever produced in this country, and coined bags full of gold with it, has returned from Australia nearly broke. Easy comes, easy goes.

Lotta, the inimitable, will once more be seen throughout the country in her successful repertoire. D. A. Bonta has made an arrangement by which the popular star will be under his management next season.

Lizzie Evans, in addition to a clever play and an unusually good company, has in preparation a most unique and telling effect, which she will produce in "The Little Blacksmith."

Corbett, while training for his great encounter with Sullivan, is at the same time preparing himself for his character in his new play, "Gentleman Jack."

Charles Frohman's "Gloriana" and "The Lost Paradise," are drawing great houses in San Francisco, notwithstanding the warm weather.

Ramsey Morris' new company will produce during the season "Joseph," which has had a run of 500 nights in Paris.

Quite a number of fine attractions will be presented at the Opera House this season new to Wheeling.

Annie Meyers will play her original character in "Tar and Tartar" next season.

Manager Rheinstrom has a force of men at work renovating the Opera House.

Lewis Morrison's daughter will star this season in "Danger Signal."

Tony Mullane, the base ball pitcher, has gone on the stage.

Gus Williams has a new musical comedy, "April Fool."

"Jane" is making all Chicago laugh.

Resolutions of Condolence and Respect.

WHEREAS, It becomes us as brothers to sympathize one with another in the time of affliction, not knowing at what hour we may be called on to drink the cup of sorrow ourselves, and

WHEREAS, Death has come into the family circle of one of us and removed from their midst the wife of our honored and faithful Brother, H. Ed. King, and made his hearth lonely and his home desolate; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we tender him our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in this, his sad hour of trial and grief; and be it further

Resolved, That out of respect for Brother H. E. King, a copy of these resolutions be spread on the minutes of this union and he be presented with a copy of the same.
